Greater St. Louis Flight Instructor Association Annual Banquet Notice

26 September 2017

On October 28th the Greater St. Louis Flight Instructor Association will conduct its annual Aviation Awards banquet. The event is planned for 7:00 pm and located at the Lambert International Airport in the Missouri Vineyards Banquet room in Terminal "A" on the upper level. The airport will provide 5 hours of free parking in the short term terminal lot for anyone who attends the event. Your parking ticket will be validated with a voucher at the banquet so no parking fees will be required. Tickets to the event once again will remain at only $35.00 for the buffet meal, a cash bar will be available.

Our Keynote speaker will be Retired Colonel George Andree who flew the world's fastest airplane, the Lockheed SR-71. George will recount several exciting events and photos that were encountered with intense moments at Mach 3 and 85,000 ft. He is also an aviation author of the book "Wingspan-From J-3 to Mach 3".

Awards will include;

Certified Flight Instructor of the year
New Flight Instructor of the year
Byrnes Award for lifetime accomplishments in aviation
Discovery Flight Awards for our young aviators of tomorrow
Master Pilot Award (Wright Brothers Award) 50 years as a pilot
Special Tribute to Ken Kellogg 11 December 1932 – 10 September 2017
Spirit of St. Louis Award
